She loved
turtles

She loved waterfalls

She adjusted you

Heard a health rant

Carol's Waterfall Adventures

ACROSS

1. Oregon's tallest cascade (620 ft) spanned by the historic Benson Bridge. (9)
3. Dropping 2,425 feet across three sections, it is the highest peak waterfall in California. (8)
6. The official state waterfall of Washington, plunging into a dramatic basalt canyon. (7)
8. Famous turquoise-blue waterfall hidden inside a remote canyon on a desert reservation in Arizona. (6)
10. Idaho's massive 212-foot cascade on the Snake River, nicknamed the "Niagara of the West." (8)
12. A unique 145-foot underground waterfall located deep inside Lookout Mountain in Tennessee. (4)
14. Washington landmark that gained pop-culture fame in the opening credits of Twin Peaks. (10)
16. Big Island of Hawaii state park gem that plunges 442 feet into a lush rainforest gorge. (5)
18. The massive section of the Niagara Falls complex that sits entirely within New York State. (8)
20. The iconic 308-foot drop marking the head of the Grand Canyon of the Yellowstone in Wyoming. (5)
22. Teddy Roosevelt called this constantly flowing, spring-fed California landmark the "Eighth Wonder of the World." (6)

DOWN

2. Michigan's famous Upper Peninsula falls, known for its amber-brown "Root Beer" color from hemlock tannins. (10)
4. The "Niagara of the South" in Kentucky, famous for producing rare nighttime "moonbows." (10)
5. The iconic, windswept waterfall that greets visitors entering Yosemite Valley opposite El Capitan. (10)
7. The lesser-known structural locks and cascade network located near Seattle's Ballard neighborhood. (10)
9. A major urban waterfall running directly through the center of a large city in Eastern Washington. (7)
11. West Virginia state park centerpiece where amber waters drop into a rugged canyon. (10)
13. Spectacular 729-foot cascade in Georgia that marks the southern edge of the Appalachian Trail. (9)
15. New York state park cascade famous for its 167-foot drop and rare endemic land snails. (11)
17. A popular urban limestone glen waterfall located right within Minneapolis, Minnesota. (9)
19. A popular, paved 80-foot multi-level trail cascade inside Great Smoky Mountains National Park. (6)
21. Arizona's famous slick sandstone creek bed that serves as a popular natural water slide. (9)
